

Marsh YachtCover Claim Form

In the event of an incident, complete this claim form and answer all questions fully. When complete, you can save a copy of the form in PDF format. Submit the PDF form and supporting images to Marsh at yachtcover@marsh.com or your broker. We will be in touch with you within two working days and may appoint a local surveyor to investigate the incident and/or inspect the damage of the yacht.

Before filling in this claim form, please:

- Report the incident to the local marine department/government authority as soon as possible.
- If the incident involves a third party, it is highly advisable to report the incident to local police or law enforcement.
- Do not admit liability, offer payment, or waive any rights to third parties without insurer approval.

After submitting this claim form, proceed to do the following:

- Obtain a repair quotation.
- Submit the repair quotation to Marsh when asked to do so and wait for approval by underwriters and surveyors before proceeding with repair work.
- Pay for the repair cost and obtain itemised receipts and invoices detailing the cost of labour and each part and/or component.
- Upon completion of repairs, submit all receipts and invoices to Marsh for settlement; the agreed amount of settlement will be reimbursed to the assured directly.
